

VCE Vocational Major – Personal Development Skills

When studying Vocational Major Personal Development Skills, Students will investigate and apply a range of leadership, teamwork and social awareness skills in their everyday lives, and when using digital technologies.

Students will investigate a range of local community issues in social, cultural, environmental and economic context. They will then plan, implement and evaluate a project or activity to raise awareness of, or impact on, a chosen issue.

Unit 3 & 4

In Unit 3 & 4 you will:

- Describe concepts relating to effective teamwork
- Apply communication and critical thinking within a team as part of a real-life scenario
- Examine the characteristics of social awareness and a range of interpersonal skills
- Investigate, describe and apply a range of leadership skills, qualities and styles
- Investigate community issues in social, cultural, environmental or economic context
- Plan, implement and evaluate a community project in a social, cultural, environmental or economic context

Types of assessment

- Project management development
- Interviews
- Multimedia presentations
- Written report
- Research tasks
- Physical or digital folio

Class Activities

- Investigations
- Data analysis
- Undertake projects
- Problem solving
- Presentations
- Planning and organising activities

Careers that may link to this subject area

Apprenticeships

Employment

TAFE/Vocational Education

Traineeships

